Visit the EducationUSA Pavilion (booth #1211) at the NAFSA Expo Hall, June 1-4, 2010

In addition to the nearly two dozen sessions that members of the EducationUSA community are presenting during the conference, we will have an significantly expanded Expo Hall presence. Meet advisers from particular regions, hear presentations on the different countries represented as well as big picture conversations on the Fulbright & Gilman scholarship programs, EducationUSA’s services for U.S. higher education, EdUSA Connects (our new web meeting project), and many more. Apply to Participate in Fall 2010 EducationUSA Reconnect-Plus Delegations to Cyprus/Turkey, Nigeria/South Africa or Ecuador/Peru Application Deadline: June 15, 2010

Accredited U.S. institutions may now apply to participate in three different U.S. Department of State-funded delegations to Cyprus/Turkey (up to 5 slots), Nigeria/South Africa (3 slots) or Ecuador/Peru (up to 5 slots) in September-October 2010. Participants will deliver information sessions and workshops for students, families and educators across the selected countries to explain the U.S. higher education admission process, academic programs and exchange initiatives. They will visit EducationUSA advising centers and local secondary schools and universities.

Applicants must be aware of the role of EducationUSA advising; representatives of campuses that have hosted an EducationUSA adviser are especially welcome. Click here for the full announcement.
