EducationUSA invites you to Partner for the future and . . .

- Discover the prospects, benefits and cultural diversity that African students bring to U.S. campuses.
- Explore opportunities to build educational partnerships between the United States and African countries.
- Identify strategies to increase visibility and access to U.S. higher education throughout Africa.
- Connect with over 50 EducationUSA Advisers from 43 countries across the African continent.

WHO participates? YOU and . . .

- REACs and EducationUSA Advisers from 43 African countries
- Admissions, Enrollment management, and study abroad representatives from accredited U.S. colleges and universities
- Partners at professional associations and service providers representing the U.S. higher education community
- Professional and academic associations representing the African higher education community

This program is sponsored by the U.S. Department of State’s Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs. The conference is designed to strengthen the EducationUSA advising network throughout Africa, build more effective and efficient Advising Centers and enhance the quality and portfolio of services provided to prospective international students and the United States higher education community.

Select the appropriate link for information on:
- Sponsorship Opportunities • Conference Registration • and Call for Proposals
  (Deadlines extended to August 16th)

http://www.educationusa.info/conferences/pretoria_2010/
EducationUSA.state.gov

We are pleased to offer this newsletter as a way to keep accredited higher education institutions informed about what is happening in our network. To register for the Higher Education Institution listserv (email group) please send an email to educationUSA@state.gov along with your name and position, and the name of your college or university.